JOHN MARSHALL BANK TAPS TED JOHNSON
Growing Bank Expanding Presence In Alexandria Region

[Alexandria, VA] [February 10, 2011] – Today John Marshall Bank, one of the most respected, well capitalized and successful community banks in the Washington metro area, announced the addition of Ted Johnson to its team of banking leaders. Mr. Johnson, a Regional Executive will be based in John Marshall Bank’s Alexandria region.

“Ted is another great addition to our growing pool of talent” said Bill Ridenour, John Marshall Bank’s President. “We are thrilled to have him on our team.”

At John Marshall Bank, Ted Johnson will be responsible for lending and servicing loans. He will continue to build John Marshall’s presence in Alexandria.

“Ted handles a lot of government contracting clients, in addition to commercial real estate, lines of credit and equipment loans to business” explained Ridenour. “He has been in banking for the past 26 years, the past eight years of which he has worked in Alexandria, making him a perfect addition to our team.”

The addition of new senior leaders like Ted Johnson is being seen as a true demonstration of John Marshall Bank’s strength as a well-run bank, especially in today’s economy. Just last week, the bank announced the addition of Pam DeCandio s Senior Vice President of the Arlington Branch.

John Marshall Bank first opened to the public in Falls Church, Virginia in May 2006. Since that time, customer service, satisfaction, and success have inspired the bank’s leaders who have helped it to grow into one of the areas most respected and well capitalized banks.
