JOHN MARSHALL BANK TAPS LYNN GULICK

First-rate banker joins business development team at fast-growing bank

[Reston, VA] [January 7, 2013] – Today John Marshall Bank, one of the fastest-growing community banks in the Washington metro area, announced the addition of Lynn Gulick to its team of banking leaders. Ms. Gulick, Senior Vice President for Business Development will be based in John Marshall Bank’s Reston office.

“I am excited to have Lynn Gulick join our already talented lending team in Reston” said Bill Ridenour, John Marshall Bank’s President. “Lynn is well known throughout the Northern Virginia business community. Her professionalism and commitment to establishing long-lasting relationships with clients is a perfect match for the culture we embrace at John Marshall Bank.”

Lynn Gulick brings over 30 years of experience in the banking industry. Prior to joining John Marshall Bank, Lynn was a Senior Vice President for eleven years at Cardinal Bank, where she specialized in new business relationships and online cash management services. Lynn brings with her strong client contacts and a desire to provide personalized customer attention.

“John Marshall Bank offers me the opportunity to be a part of banking I enjoy most – close relationships with clients, easy local access to the bank’s decision makers, top-notch banking executives and a commitment to community. I am delighted to be joining John Marshall Bank, especially the chance to work with their great banking team throughout the Washington, DC metropolitan area,” said Gulick.

Lynn holds numerous advance banking certifications from the American Banking Association; American Institute of Banking; Virginia Bankers Association; University of Central Florida and the University of Oklahoma. She lives in Lorton and is active in the community.

The addition of new senior leaders like Lynn Gulick is being seen as a demonstration of John Marshall Bank’s strength as a well-run bank that is meeting the challenges of today’s economy. The bank has five branches throughout the Washington, DC metropolitan area, with plans for a sixth branch in Alexandria. The bank also has a loan production office in Alexandria and one in the District of Columbia.

John Marshall Bank first opened to the public under that name in May 2008. Since that time, customer service, satisfaction, and success have inspired the bank’s leaders who have helped it to grow into one of the areas most respected and well capitalized banks.

“John Marshall Bank’s business model is based largely on people” Ridenour continued. “We seek to hire talent, and expand the company based on the strengths of our bankers like Lynn.”
