John Marshall Bank Announces Completion of Common Stock Offering

November 15, 2013, Reston, Virginia. John Marshall Bank (the “Bank”), a $627.4 million commercial bank headquartered in Reston, Virginia, announced today that it had completed its offering of common stock. An aggregate of 2,400,000 shares were sold in the offering, including all of the 400,000 oversubscription shares, at an offering price of $13.50 per share, for gross proceeds of $32,400,000. The offering was effected through the efforts of the directors and executive officers of the Bank, with the assistance, on a best efforts basis, of BB&T Capital Markets, a division of BB&T Securities, LLC, as sole sales agent.

John R. Maxwell, Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of the Bank said that he was “very appreciative of the strong support shown for the offering by the Bank’s existing shareholders and other individual investors, as well as by institutional investors, and extremely pleased to have the offering sell out at the top of the indicated price range.”

The proceeds of the offering will be used by the Bank to support its lending, deposit taking and investing activities, to support its growth and expansion and for general corporate purposes.

This press release does not constitute an offer to sell or a solicitation of an offer to buy the securities described herein, nor shall there be any sale of these securities in any state or jurisdiction in which such an offer, solicitation or sale would be unlawful prior to registration or qualification under the securities laws of any such jurisdiction. The offering may be made only by means of an offering circular, as supplemented and amended. The securities are not deposits and are neither insured nor approved by the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System, the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation or any other bank regulatory agency. The securities are being offered pursuant to an exemption from registration under the Securities Act of 1933 provided by Section 3(a)(2) of such Act.
