Newton, Mass. (November 14, 2012) – BestCashCow, an online resource for comprehensive bank rate information, today announced that Reston-based John Marshall Bank tops its list of the fastest growing banks in Virginia for the five-year period ending June 30, 2012. Between 2007 and 2012, John Marshall's assets have grown 1,835%, totaling $484,594,000 at the end of the second quarter this year.

"Our success and continued growth is directly attributable to the experience and market knowledge of our bankers," said Bill Ridenour, president of John Marshall Bank. "The bank's asset quality, strong capital position, competitiveness of its product offerings and personal attention to each customer also contribute to our steady stream of new business opportunities."

John Marshall Bank is based in Reston, Virginia and has five full-service branches located in Reston, Falls Church, Leesburg, Arlington, and Rockville. The Bank also has a limited service commercial branch located in Washington, DC, and a loan production office located in Alexandria.

"Despite the pressure of low interest rates, many small and community-based banks are thriving," said Sol Nasisi, president of BestCashCow. "Banks like John Marshall are able to do so because they have the right formula to succeed in today's economy. They have well-defined markets, entrepreneurial cultures and solid balance sheets and at the end of the day, success breeds success. As these banks continue to grow and effectively compete in their local markets, more and more consumers are looking to them for their next mortgage, business loan or credit card."
