GEORGE MASON UNIVERSITY HONORS JOHN MARSHALL BANK'S JASON MCDONOUGH

Bank's SVP/Director of Commercial Real Estate Lending recognized among University's distinguished group of prominent alumni

[Reston, VA] [September 19, 2018] – Today, one of John Marshall Bank's senior officers was honored to be chosen from among the elite George Mason University School of Business alumni for the distinction of 2018 Prominent Patriots.

Jason McDonough is the Senior Vice President, Director of Commercial Real Estate Lending at John Marshall Bank's Reston corporate headquarters. He graduated with honors, earning an MS in Real Estate Development in 2015. He represented George Mason University (GMU) in the NAIOP Capital Challenge intercollegiate case study competition in 2014 and was coach of the champion 2015 team. After graduating, he co-founded the Real Estate Development Industry Group for the alumni of the real estate program and most recently served as the alumni's director in 2017-2018.

Alumni chosen as Prominent Patriots epitomize GMU for being engaged citizens and well-rounded scholars. Peer-nominated and peer-selected, the Prominent Patriots represent School of Business alumni as the very best in demonstrating citizenship, scholarship, and leadership in their daily lives.

"Jason represents the character and commitment we are privileged to have as bank officers working at John Marshall Bank," said President & CEO Chris Bergstrom. "16 well-deserving graduates received the 2018 Prominent Patriot distinction, and I am proud that Jason is among this elite group. I extend my congratulations to Jason and the others who were honored as a Prominent Patriot this year."

“Receiving this recognition is humbling, especially considering the other prominent men and women with whom I am privileged to share this distinction,” said Jason. “I would be remiss if I did not recognize the support of my wife, Jessy. Her tireless effort and sacrifice provide me with the opportunity and confidence I need to be successful. I am also proud to be part of a team at John Marshall Bank that encourages employees to always strive for achievement, and takes pride in enriching the lives of those in our community,” added Jason.

John Marshall Bank has banking centers in Reston, Alexandria, Arlington, Leesburg, Rockville, Washington, D.C., and a seventh Tysons Corner branch scheduled to open late fall. A loan production office has recently opened in Woodbridge. The Bank is headquartered in Reston.

John Marshall Bank first opened to the public in Falls Church, Virginia in May 2006. Since that time, the bank has become one of the areas most respected, fastest growing and well-capitalized banks.
